Note	"The manuscript of this little manual of Roman law will be found in the Bibliothèque nationale identified as Paris Gr. 1384. It was edited and published by Z. von Lingenthal at Leipsic in 1865 as part IV of the series called 'Jus graeco-romanum'. The text follows very closely that of the Ecloga, but deals only with private personal law and contains no appendices. Also there are certain important modifications, especially in financial law." -- Introd. "Glossary": p. [87]-113.
